

Interim Executive Director Hired

The museum has selected a local expert on history and museum management, Sam Shogren, as its interim executive director.

Shogren is a historian, historical archaeologist and museum administrator with extensive experience in planning, exhibit and cultural interpretation, historic preservation and public policy. He holds a masters degree in public administration and advanced certificates in both nonprofit management and nonprofit fundraising from Portland State University. He has agreed to serve the Washington County Museum for a minimum of six months while it completes its strategic plan and its search for a permanent executive director.

Read more at <http://washingtontcountymuseum.org/aboutus/message-director.php>

A Swank Affair

Reserve Your Table or Ticket Now

Swing to a Hollywood evening from the 50's & 60's with the Washington County Rat Pack!

October 18, 2008 · 5:30 p.m.
PCC, Rock Creek Campus, Event Center

Purchase your tickets online at washingtontcountymuseum.org or call Clarinda at 503-629-7094.

Please respond by October 6, 2008

Donate to the Auction

You can help make this year's auction our most successful fundraiser ever. We need auction items large and small for the October gala. Would you be willing to donate your vacation home, provide a special service, ask your favorite restaurant for a gift certificate, put together a special theme basket, or come up with your own idea for an item to donate?

Win a Trip to Bali!

Enjoy a week for two guests at Apa Kabar Villas located on the South Pacific coast of the magical island of Bali. This area of Indonesia is famous for outstanding diving, snorkeling, hiking, music and a relaxed ambiance. The area has amazing natural beauty and the people are extremely open and friendly. This is an ideal location for those who wish to experience the real Bali far away from the crowds. The resort consists of two twin villas, four cottages, a beautiful open air restaurant, a 40 foot swimming pool and a dive center.

Included in this 6 night, 7 day vacation are: two diving lessons, two massage sessions, and one meal for two guests. Airfare is not included. For more information check out www.apakabarvillas.com. To purchase your $100 raffle ticket call Clarinda at 503-629-7094.

Upcoming Lecture

October Crossroads Lecture

"Climate Change in the Willamette Valley:
What Will Happen and When"
with Brian Doyle
Wednesday, October 15
3:30-4:30 p.m.

Dr. Brian Doyle will explore the dilemma of global warming and its consequences in the Willamette Valley. While it is quite certain that humans are affecting climate warming, there is still much uncertainty about how rapidly this will happen and the response of plant and animal life.

Lectures are held at the Washington County Museum. Admission is free to WCHS members, PCC faculty, staff, and students. Adults $3 & seniors $2.

Save the Date

Annual Membership Reception and Meeting

Monday, November 17
Reception 5:30 p.m.
Annual Meeting and Presentation 6:30 p.m.

Meet the museum's interim executive director, Sam Shogren, indulge in scrumptious hors d'oeuvres sponsored by A Simple Elegance Catering, and enjoy the Mobile Museum presentation "On the Oregon Trail & Pioneer Life" with Rachel Foxman. Dressed in period costume, Rachel will recall what life was like for pioneer families who made the long trip west to settle in the Oregon Territory.

Traveling Exhibit

This Kalapuya Land

Look for This Kalapuya Land at the Hillsboro Civic Center, 150 E. Main Street in Hillsboro between August 18th and October 9th. We are pleased to announce that the exhibit will then travel to the Tillamook Forestry Center, off Hwy. 6 in the Coast Range near milepost 22, where it will be on display through the end of the year.

Learn more at www.washingtoncountymuseum.org

Washington County Historical Society & Museum
17677 NW Springville Road, Portland, OR 97229
membership@washingtoncountymuseum.org

Join Our Mailing List!